

Post Surgical Unit RN

An exciting career opportunity is now available for the right individual as a Post Surgical Unit RN at Baylor Medical Center at Trophy Club. The mission of Baylor Medical Center at Trophy Club is to provide first class surgical services for the local community in a safe, comfortable and welcoming environment; one in which we would be happy to treat our own families. The hospital is primarily surgery focused and is partnered with team members, physicians, United Surgical Partners International, Tenet Health, and Baylor Scott & White to fulfill this mission.

Baylor Medical Center at Trophy Club offers a competitive pay and benefits package. The facility also offers an exceptional workplace culture with a family-like atmosphere.

Some key facts about Trophy Club are:

- Opened in 2004
- Performs over 7,000 cases annually
- 8 operating rooms
- 22 Inpatient rooms
- Diagnostic imaging department
- Emergency department
- Specialties include: Orthopedic, Spine, Bariatric, Pain Management, Podiatry, Urology, and GI
- Joint Commission Accredited
- Bariatric Center of Excellence

Job Summary:

The RN has the responsibility to plan, direct, organize, coordinate and implement all nursing care services for the post surgical patients in a manner suitable to accepted standards of care. He / she ensures the highest quality and safe delivery of patient care, maintain compliance with professional nursing, TJC, and all Federal and State standards of care. The RN cares for all ages from 1 year to geriatric. The PSU nurse is also responsible for implementing all physician orders, providing for the continuity and quality of nursing care for all patients, with continual evaluation of the patient's condition, providing patient safety, comfort, and privacy at all times.

Job Requirements:

- Graduate of an accredited RN School of Nursing.
- Minimum 2 years experience as a RN in hospital Medical/Surgery or ICU unit.
- RN, current in the State of Texas
- BLS, ACLS Required
- Ability to make decisions based on nursing judgment.
- Able to prioritize and organize workload to meet needs of patients and unit.
- Strong communication skills, verbal and written.

Hours for this shift are 7pm-7am

All interested parties please send your resume to dirvin@uspi.com.